

VITA

JENNE R. HENDERSON

EDUCATION

Ph.D.
December, 1991

University of Louisville
Clinical Psychology Program
(APA Approved)

B.S.
May, 1985

University of Puget Sound
(Major: Psychology)

PROFESSIONAL LICENSE

Licensed Psychologist - State of Oregon - May, 1993

ORGANIZATIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Member, American Psychological Association
Member, Oregon Psychological Association

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Licensed Psychologist (9/96 to Present)
Children's Program, Portland, Oregon

- ◆ Responsibilities: Provide individual and family therapy for children. Specialty practice in the treatment of childhood anxiety.

Licensed Psychologist (5/93 to 8/96)
Tualatin Valley Mental Health Center, Portland, Oregon

- ◆ Responsibilities: Coordinated the Child Evaluation Clinic, provided family therapy for children who attended the day treatment program, conducted psychological evaluations, provided outpatient individual, family, and group psychotherapy for children, adolescents, families, and adults.

Predoctoral Intern/Psychologist Resident (9/90 - 5/93)

Jenne R. Henderson

Vita

Page 2

Tualatin Valley Mental Health Center, Portland, Oregon

- ◆ Responsibilities: During the internship year, rotations were completed in the Family Chemical Dependency Program and at Open Gate (CMI). In addition, worked in the Child Evaluation Clinic. Duties included conducting evaluations, managing cases, leading groups, family therapy, and individual therapy.

Graduate School Training Experience (8/86 – 8/90)

Louisville, Kentucky

- ◆ Responsibilities: Various practicum and training experiences, including conducting psychological and neuropsychological evaluations in a rehabilitation hospital, served as psychological testing technician for several psychologists in private practice, provided outpatient therapy in the University's psychology clinic, and conducted evaluations in a private inpatient hospital.

PUBLICATIONS

Brave: Be Ready and Victory's Easy, Knudsen, Marjie Braun and Jenne Henderson, Ph.D.
Beaverton, OR: Summertime Press, 2008